

When to clean hands ?

Johns Hopkins Policy requires hand cleaning upon entry and exit from a patient's room, between patients, AND during the following situations:

Before invasive procedures

After contact with mucous membranes, bodily fluids, contaminated equipment or articles

After glove removal

When moving from a contaminated to non-contaminated site on same patient